I was going to write a gigantic review, like I normally do, but I'll keep it short for this one.

- If you like active Developers who update the game and fix issues, these guys get things DONE.
- If you like trains, train simulators, and the like... you should probably own this game anyway. IT HAS VR.
- Simple controls, straight-forward tutorial.
- Available in BOTH VR, and NON-VR (Normal Desktop/Laptops without a VR headset).

Buy it. Play it for an hour. If you don't like it, remember... Steam accepts refunds on games with less than 2 hours of gameplay, and less than 14 days from purchase.. - No sound, completely silent when your train passes by
- No random variant, so you'll have to manually make your consists look random. Good Charlotte is always been one of my all time favourites, glad to see them in the game finally. Good @ss pop punk music, fun to play.. This game took far too long to find it's own tone and humor; the first half felt like a cheap Monkey Island knockoff. There is charm there and inventiveness, but by the time it really shows up, the game is nearly over.. Interesting mix of shoot'em-up bullet hell games and 4X strategy. You can explore the Universe, fight through thousands of various enemy units, research new technologies, build a lot of stuff and experience the storyline, something that 4X games usually lack. The music is awesome, too.

However, the storyline itself is somewhat shallow, character depth is nonexistent, and the game only runs at 640x480 and 800x600, forcing you to play in Windowed mode, if you have a 16:9 monitor.

Overall, it's a great game, which I played for around 30 hours outside of Steam, and 13 more hours here. It's not worth the full price of 10 dollars/euros, because it's outdated, but you should definitely grab it during the sale..

Good game, good Wolfenstein.

Well crafted world, good level design...I could go on.

8.5/10 because it lacks the real New Game +, you have to manually select chapter 1 and then replay the game again. Otherwise you lose all Perk progress. had this been fixed, I'd give it a 9.5/10
